

License

When you purchase or free download a Theme from ThemeWagon, you are actually being granted a license to use that product. All the products in ThemeWagon can be used for personal & commercial purposes. To understand our licenses, please read the following details.

Free Themes:

All themes published on ThemeWagon can be used for free. You can use them for commercial and non-commercial purposes. You can use them to make a website for your clients and get paid.

Template authors have different licensing about attribution link removal. Some authors require you to keep the attribution link in the footer others not. Please see the corresponding template author license in their website for this purpose.

This license does not include the right to compile themes from ThemeWagon to replicate a similar or competing for service and to use the themes in derivative themes or “generators”.

Premium Themes:

All our premium items are covered by our “Single” and “Unlimited” licenses. Here’s an overview of what each license allows for to make it easy to pick what you need:

Single License

1. The Single License grants you a non-exclusive right to make use of Theme you have purchased. ThemeWagon retains ownership of the Theme but grants you the license on these terms.
2. You are licensed to use the Item to create one End Product for yourself or for one client (a “single application”), and the End Product can be distributed for Free.
3. You can...
 1. Create one End Product for a client, transfer that End Product to your client, charge them for your services. The license is then transferred to the client.
 2. Make unlimited copies of the single End Product as long as the End Product is distributed for free
 3. Modify the Theme or combine the Theme with other works to make a derivative one. The result is subject to this license. This clause applies to extract single components from the Theme and using it in derivative works as well.
4. You cannot...
 1. Sell the End Product except to one client.
 2. Re-distribute the Theme’s source, modified or not, even if the Theme is modified.
 3. Use the Theme in any application allowing an End User to customize the Theme, like “build it yourself” or “theme generators”. You can purchase separate licenses for each final product incorporating the Theme that is created using the application.
 4. Allow the End User of the End Product to access the Theme’s source and use it separately from the End Product.
5. If a Theme contains code, images, or content sourced from elsewhere under a different license, that item retains its original license. The license for the code, images, or content will be noted by the ThemeWagon in that Theme description. You are responsible for adhering to the original license of the code, image, or content if necessary. Eg: Some Theme contains premium stock photos which are not distributed with the theme. You need to purchase them separately from the corresponding stock photo website.
6. This license can be terminated if you breach it and you lose the right to distribute the End Product until the Theme has been fully removed from the End Product.

1. Create multiple End Product for multiple clients, transfer that End Product(s) to your client(s), charge them for your services. The license is then transferred to the client(s).
2. Sell and make any number of copies of the End Product(s).
